Re: United States v. Huberfeld (1:16-cr-00467-LJL)

Dear Judge Liman:

Dechert LLP, along with Meister Seelig & Fein LLP, represents Murray Huberfeld in the above-captioned matter. We write respectfully to request an adjournment of sentencing and an extension of the related deadlines in light of the issuance yesterday of the revised presentence report and the upcoming Passover holiday.

At present, the Parties' objections to the PSR and sentencing submissions are due by March 19, and responses (along with any objection to proceeding with the sentencing remotely) are due by April 2. This schedule was set in response to our second request for an extension dated February 22, 2021, which the Court granted the following day (see Dkt. No. 361). That second request was made based on our understanding at the time that the revised PSR "should be ready by February 26" (id.).

In the end, the revised PSR was issued on March 16, 2021. Because (a) Fed. R. Crim. P. 32 entitles Mr. Huberfeld 14 days to raise any objections to the PSR and (b) that 14-day mark falls during Passover, we request an extension of the sentencing-related filing deadlines to on or after the following dates, subject, of course, to the Court's concurrence and availability:

Friday, April 9, 2021: Deadline for the Parties' objections to the revised PSR and for the Parties' sentencing submissions;

Friday, April 23, 2021: Deadline for the Parties' responses and for any objection to proceeding with the sentencing remotely; and

Friday, May 14, 2021: Sentencing hearing.

Hon. Lewis J. Liman

We also remain cautiously optimistic that, should the Court grant the requested adjournment, the circumstances may permit the hearing to be conducted safely in person. The Government consents to this third request for an extension of time.

Respectfully submitted,
